SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

BASIS OF PREPARATION:

The financial statements have been prepared to comply in all material respects with the accounting standards notified by Companies Accounting Standards Rules, 2006 and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 ('the Act'). The financial statements have been prepared under historical cost convention on an accrual basis in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in India. The accounting policies have been consistently applied by the Company and are consistent with those used in the previous year.

USE OF ESTIMATES:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles require the management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of Assets and Liabilities and disclosure of Contingent Liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the result of operations during the reporting period. Although these estimates are based upon management's best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results could differ from these estimates. Significant estimates used by the management in the preparation of these financial statements include estimates of the economic useful life of Fixed Assets and provisions for bad and doubtful debts. Any revision to accounting estimates is recognized prospectively.

(a) Accounting Convention and Revenue Recognition – AS 9:

The Financial Statements have been prepared on a going concern basis in accordance with historical cost convention. The Company follows mercantile system of accounting and recognizes income and expenditure on accrual basis.

- a) "Revenue is the gross inflow of cash, receivables or other consideration arising in the course of the ordinary activities of an enterprise from the sale of goods, from the rendering of services, and from the use by others of enterprise resources yielding interest, royalties and dividends. Revenue is measured by the charges made to customers or clients for goods supplied and services rendered to them and by the charges and rewards arising from the use of resources by them. In an agency relationship, the revenue is the amount of commission and not the gross inflow of cash, receivables or other consideration.
- b) Completed service contact method is a method of accounting which recognizes revenue in the statement of profit and loss only when the rendering of services under a contract is completed or substantially completed.
- c) Proportionate completion method is a method of accounting which recognizes revenue in the statement of profit and loss proportionately with degree of completion of services under a contract.

(b) Cash Flow Statement: AS-3

The Company has prepared Cash Flow Statement as per the AS-3.

(c) Retirements Benefits:

Company makes monthly contribution to the Employees Provident Fund and Pension Fund under the provisions of Employees Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952.

COUNTRY CONDO'S LIMITED

(d) Fixed Assets:

Fixed Assets are stated at cost of acquisition and subsequent improvements thereto, inclusive of taxes, freight and other incidental expenses related to acquisition, improvements and installation.

(e) Depreciation:

Depreciation on Fixed Assets is provided on straight-line method as per the rates specified in Schedule XIV of the Companies Act, 1956. This is in accordance with the AS-6 and there is no change in the method of Depreciation during the year.

(f) Inventories:

Inventories are valued at Cost or Net Realizable value whichever is lower.

(g) Taxes on Income:

- a) Provision for tax for the year comprises current Income Tax and Deferred Tax and is provided as per the Income Tax Act, 1961.
- b) The provision made for income tax in the accounts comprises both the current and deferred tax. Current tax is provided for on the taxable income for the year. The deferred tax assets and liabilities for the year arising on account of timing differences (net) are recognized in the Profit and Loss account and the cumulative effect thereof is reflected in the Balance Sheet.

(h) Provisions:

Provisions are recognized for liabilities that can be measured only by using a substantial degree of estimation, if

- a) The Company has a present obligation as a result of a past event;

(i) Earnings per Share:

The earnings considered in ascertaining the Earning per Share comprise of Net Profit after Tax. The number of shares used in computing Basic Earnings per Share is the Weighted Average number of shares outstanding during the year, as per AS-20.

(j) Related Party Disclosures :

The Company as required by AS-18 furnishes the details of Related Party Disclosures
